Guardian Auto Glass expansion continues into Colorado Springs

Worthington, Ohio – January 31, 2012 -- Guardian Auto Glass, LLC announced today that it is expanding its operations into Colorado Springs, Colorado and has named Mark Campos to oversee that growth. The group's newest facility will be located on Central Park Drive in Colorado Springs.

Guardian Auto Glass provides glass repair and replacement services for automobiles, buses, trucks and recreational vehicles and now has more than 50 locations throughout the United States.

Campos has more than 10 years of auto glass retail experience and will be an equity owner and manager in the new Guardian Auto Glass location.

"We are excited to begin operations in Colorado Springs with a great team headed by Mark Campos," said Jerry Ray, vice president and managing partner of Guardian Auto Glass. "Mark will lead our sales effort and Rodney Schroth will provide operations management," said Ray. Schroth is currently an equity partner and manager in the company's Denver operations.

Guardian Auto Glass LLC was formed in 2010 between Guardian Glass Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Guardian Industries Corp., and LRST LLC to manage and grow the retail auto glass business of Guardian.

Guardian Auto Glass LLC is seeking owners, qualified sales professionals and operations managers who seek ownership and/or employment opportunities in their markets, throughout the US. All inquiries will be treated confidentially and should be directed to LRST@Guardian.com.
