SAFELITE® GROUP ANNOUNCES ADDITION TO HUMAN RESOURCES LEADERSHIP TEAM

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Barb Kelley has joined Safelite® Group, the nation's leading vehicle glass and claims management service organization, as director of human resources for call center operations.

"Barb is an experienced human resources and talent management leader," said Steve Miggo, senior vice president of human resources and leadership development. "She brings to Safelite® a wealth of experience in disciplines such as recruiting, employee relations, change management and succession planning. She will utilize these skills to help us attract and retain top talent for our call centers, which is integral to our long-term strategic plans."

Kelley joins Safelite® from retailer Tween Brands, Inc., where she served as director of human resources for nearly two years. Prior to that, she was director of human resources for Limited Stores, where she spent six years in varying human resources roles. She previously worked in human resources for Drug Emporium and Big Bear stores.

"Barb's broad-based experience in retail human resources management is what attracted us to her," added Miggo. "Coming from such customer-focused organizations, she understands the importance of hiring brand ambassadors who put customer needs above all else. This is critical to the success of Safelite® and the satisfaction of our customers. She is an effective human resource manager who will help advance our organization's goals."

Kelley earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. She was certified by Hermann International as an instructor for their Brain Dominance instrument program in 2005.
