

allow the State sufficient time to adequately prepare its brief, or allow the court time to adequately consider the issues.

For the foregoing reasons, the State respectfully requests that Safelite's Emergency Motion to Expedite Appeal be denied and that the briefing schedule be governed by Local Rule 31.2. In the alternative, if Safelite's motion is granted, the State respectfully requests that it be allowed to file its brief 45 days after Safelite files its brief.
