DELTA KITS TRAINING & CERTIFICATION TO BE HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH IGA CONFERENCE

Windshield Repair Training at the Golden Nugget in Las Vegas

EUGENE, OR -- Delta Kits, an internationally recognized supplier of windshield repair products will be holding a windshield repair training and certification class at the Golden Nugget Hotel in Las Vegas Nevada on May 4, 2008. This popular one day hands-on training course is available to all windshield repair technicians regardless of experience or current equipment preference.

“Reservations are on a first come first serve bases and classes tend to fill up fast”, stated Brent Deines, President of Delta Kits. “With the IGA convention and auto glass show ending on May 3rd, windshield repair technicians interested in equipment and techniques that will help them improve their bottom line will benefit from the time and location of this Delta Kits event”, continued Deines.

The ROLAGS™ standard is used as a guideline for the Delta Kits training curriculum. The cost to attend this training and certification class is only $300 including lunch at the Golden Nugget. All equipment and supplies are provided, and the class size is limited to a 1/5 technician to instructor ratio.
