

eDirectGlass Announces Strategic Business Alliance with Expotech Inc.

Mid-Large Size Automotive Aftermarket Service Providers To Benefit from Powerful Suite of Call Center and Mobility Services

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, February 4, 2010 -- eDirectGlass, the worldwide leading provider of Internet-based point-of-sale and mobile related technologies, a wholly owned subsidiary of AMJ Logistics, Inc., today announced that it has entered into a strategic business alliance with Expotech Inc. to further improve call center and mobility services in the worldwide automotive aftermarket repair and replacement industry.

“By partnering with Expotech, the combined efficiencies will result in industry changing programs and services for the AGRR community, as it relates to virtual call center services and advanced products for professionals who perform mobile services,” said Gary Hart, chief executive officer at eDirectGlass.

eDirectGlass is the first and only true Internet-based point-of-sale and business management system for the AGRR industry. eDirectGlass is feature-packed with market-leading capabilities such as free electronic data interchange for network invoices, document and image management, real-time supplier connectivity, integrated web pricing & scheduling and more; all with the ability to work from anywhere at any time with little to no associated IT maintenance or costs.

Through this non-exclusive strategic alliance, eDirectGlass will provide fully integrated, enterprise class, scalable services for mid to large size businesses that seek to handle third party administration of claims or installation support services. Expotech in return will have the ability to offer turnkey, “out of the box” solutions to new vertical industries based on eDirectGlass technologies.

“eDirectGlass has a compelling, forward-looking vision for creating and realizing new efficiencies in the AGRR industry, and our organizations and solutions are aligned to deliver a powerful business oriented approach to those companies seeking to expand beyond the limitations of their current systems,” cites Rod Ghani, president, Expotech Inc. “eDirectGlass is a proven, progressive, organization with the leadership and vision to ensure the dynamic growth for any adopter of their technology. The eDirectGlass team clearly demonstrates the disciplines required to support any customer requirement or specification.”
