

If you're an auto glass professional, prove it.

Prove it to yourself and your customers. Get registered with AGRSS, and certified with DOW and SIKA through the Auto Glass Certification program now offered by GDU.

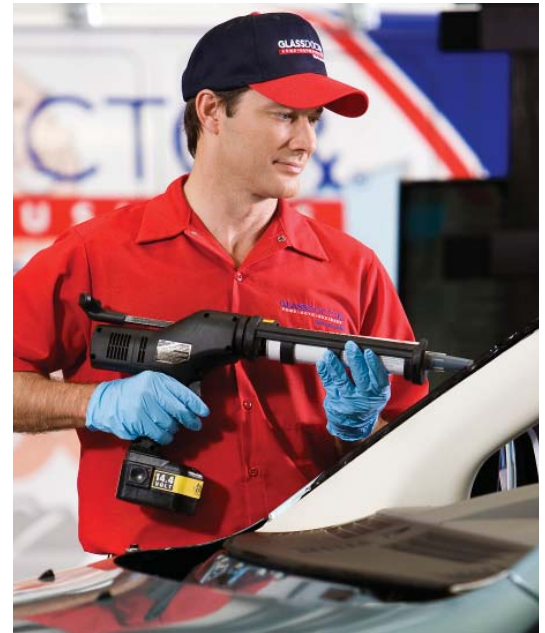

In just 4 days you'll learn the disciplines of professional auto glass installation by following the nationally recognized industry standards and urethane manufacturer recommendations. This isn't just "sit and git" training, it's a mix of minimum hands-on with the latest technology in auto glass adhesives, tools, and techniques, plus extensive classroom training at the state-of-the-art GDU shop.

At the GDU auto glass certification training you'll learn from the nation's top industry leaders. GDU Technical Manager Frank Levesque, an industry veteran with 40 years of experience, will be your auto glass certification program lead instructor. He'll be joined by Denny Noreikas and Dale Malcolm of DOW, along with Blake Brandt and Carl Tompkins of SIKA. If you want to be an industry leader then this training is for you, whether you are a frontline technician or a business owner.

Classroom size is limited, so register now! Cost is $1,495 and it includes registration fees, a 4-night hotel stay, plus breakfast and lunch each day. Air fare can be added when reservations are determined. Travel arrangements can be made through Shirley Witt, GDU Training Coordinator. Please contact her via e-mail at Shirley.witt@glassdoctor.com or by calling (800) 280-9959, ext. 2480. Complete and return the attached registration form.

Prove your professionalism. You don't settle for less. Why should your customers?
