NWRA SUPPLIERS OFFER DISCOUNT TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE
NWRA Supplier Members Provide 50-Percent-Off Discount

Due to the importance of this year's Annual Conference, National Windshield Repair Association (NWRA) supplier members have decided to provide 50-percent-off coupons – up to a $175 value – to those who register before the conference's pre-registration deadline. Promotion codes have been distributed to each NWRA supplier member to distribute to their customers upon request.

The 2008 NWRA Annual Conference will be held November 6-7 at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center in Las Vegas and is co-located with the International Autobody Congress and Exposition (NACE). The conference will contain two days of educational events, certification testing, repair competitions and a reception at Mandalay Bay Convention Center.

“We have put together a dynamic conference with educational, technical and social events and we do not want price to be an issue for those who want to attend,” said Paul Syfko, president of NWRA and an NWRA supplier member. “With the discount an NWRA member will be able to come get trained, certified, see the [\[Walt Gorman\] Windshield Repair Olympics](#) and NACE for only $75. No other auto glass association is offering that kind of access to Auto Glass Week™.”

Also included in the conference's registration fee is admission to the Auto Glass Technician Olympics.
