NOVUS GLASS FRANCHISEE'S SON JAKE ZAMANSKY IS HEADING TO THE OLYMPICS

Minneapolis, MN — NOVUS Glass, is proud to announce that Jake Zamansky, son of NOVUS Glass Aspen, CO Franchisees, Dave and Diane Zamansky, was named to the US Olympic Alpine Ski Team. Qualifying for the Olympics at the World Cup races earlier this season, Jake will be participating in the giant slalom event. The race will take place on Sunday, February 21, 2010.

Since he was just seven years old, Jake has been ski racing. He has been on the US Ski Team for over ten years. After many years of hard work and injuries Jake has accomplished his goal of qualifying for the Olympics. Currently Jake is in Europe and will be participating in one more race before he heads back to the states.

A NOVUS franchisee for over 15 years Dave and Diane has worked hard to support their son's training and extensive travel. There have been the usual ups and downs, but they always knew Jake would succeed. When asked what he hopes his son will get out of his time at the Olympics Dave answered, "Vancouver is going to be a lot of high energy. I just want my son to enjoy and have a wonderful experience". From everyone at NOVUS Glass we congratulate Jake and the entire Zamansky Family on this great accomplishment. We wish Jake much good luck and look forward to watching him next month when the Olympics take place in Vancouver.
