FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AGRSS Appoints Charles Turiello of Diamond Glass to Board of Directors

Kingston, PA (Nov. 12, 2007) –

AGRSS, The Auto Glass Replacement Safety Standard Council, elected Charles Turiello to its board of directors during its meeting Oct. 30, 2007, prior to the AGRSS™ Annual Conference in Las Vegas. Mr. Turiello currently serves as Director of Quality Assurance & Safety with Diamond Glass, Inc., in Kingston, PA.

According to Turiello, “This is an opportunity to make a difference in our industry, and I accept and look forward to all the challenges of this prestigious nomination. Anyone replacing auto glass, should adhere to these stringent and worthwhile AGRSS™ standards.” The AGRSS™ Council is nationally recognized as the industry leader for setting the acceptable standards for automotive glass replacement. Charles Turiello and Diamond Glass both value the benchmarks necessary to provide quality auto glass replacement that maintains safety standards set by the automotive industry.

Diamond Glass would like to join with the AGRSS™ Council in congratulating Charles Turiello on his appointment to the AGRSS Board of Directors. According to Diamond Glass President Bill Cogswell, “Diamond is proud of Charles’ accomplishments and his appointment to the AGRSS™ Board. We support the on-going work being performed by AGRSS, and will continue our efforts to help raise the levels of awareness on quality and safety awareness in our industry.”

The AGRSS™ Council is an accredited American National Standards Institute (ANSI)-standards development organization. It has developed North America’s only auto glass replacement standard, the AGRSS™ standard (ANSI/ AGRSS™ 002-2002 Automotive Glass Replacement Safety Standard). The AGRSS Standard addresses procedures, education and product performance. As of Nov. 1, 2007, All Diamond Glass locations have been certified and registered with the AGRSS™ Council.
