Room Rates for the IGA Show Hotel Coming Down During the Week

The IGA has negotiated a lower per night room rate with the Golden Nugget Hotel and Casino for the 2007 Independence Days Spring Auto Glass Show™, being held May 17-19, 2007 at the Cashman Center in Las Vegas.

The previous rate of $112 has been reduced to $79 per night plus tax during the week. Individuals who have already made reservations will receive the reduced rate. The $112 rate remains in effect for Friday and Saturday nights.

For room reservations, contact the Golden Nugget Hotel & Casino at 800/634-3454. Be sure to mention you are with the IGA and Americas' Glass Showcase to receive the discounted room rate of $79 plus tax. This room rate is only available until April 16, 2007 and availability is based on first come, first-served so book your rooms now!

Noted automotive safety advocate Ralph Nader will be the keynote speaker at this year's conference. Nader will discuss consumer/glass safety in auto and architecture. He will be speaking on Friday, May 18.

The show is scheduled to take place in conjunction with the America's Glass Association's Spring Glass Showcase. In addition to this year's trade show and seminars, the IGA will be introducing a half dozen new membership programs.

Pre-registration for IGA members is $299 and $399 for non-members. Daily registrations are available at the rate of $199 per day for members and $250 for non-members. Members are admitted to the trade show free of charge. Trade show admittance for non-members is a daily fee of $20. Pre-registration ends May 4, at which point all registration becomes onsite at a higher price.

Tickets to the welcome reception at the Harley-Davidson Café are available at a price of $25 for members and $35 for non-members for all who register for daily and full conference participation.

There is also a golf outing offered on the 17th at a cost of $160 per person, which includes cart rental, lunch, and prizes. You must be a daily or full conference registrant to participate in the golf tournament.
